Flute Concert

Delving into a collection of rarely heard and often unpublished works discovered in libraries of Europe and the United States, flutists Greer Ellison and Wendy Rolfe will present a concert Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Gabriel's Church, Marion.

Calling the program "A Flute for All Seasons", the two women will balance their selections between the music of the 19th and early 20th centuries and the extended techniques of the Avant-garde. They will be accompanied on the piano.

Tickets for the concert are available through the church office and may be obtained at the Mattapoisett Pharmacy, and Browne's Pharmacy and The Bookstall in Marion. They also may be available at the door.

Miss Ellison is a teacher and performer on the faculty at National Music Camp, Interlochen, Michigan, and has studied in the United States, Holland and England.

Miss Rolfe was a 1977 Tanglewood Fellow and member of the Berkshire Music Center Orchestra. She has studied with noted flutist Jean-Pierre Rampal.

ASK BOTTLE BILL OPPOSITION

Roger Bernstein, representing the Glass Packaging Institute, and Roger Williams of Point Connett appeared before Selectmen to ask opposition to the bottle bill. Mr. Williams is a Coca Cola bottler and he said that he has been involved in conservation for some years and is concerned with the beauty of the woods yet he strongly opposes the bottle bill. He explained that his plant has no facilities to handle returned bottles which would require 1/2 million dollars in machinery to process. This cost plus interest he said would have to be added to the product which would add at least 25¢ to a 6 pack of soft drinks.

Roger Bernstein said that the bottle bill is not only bottles but cans. He said that stores are very concerned about returned cans and bottles for sanitary reasons as well as the problem of handling and storage. He said that such litter containing food residue and bugs should not be returned to a food selling establishment. He said that his industry proposes an alternative bill, H.B. 1500, which would create a fund to hire local cleanup crews on a full time basis to continually clean up all litter. According to his figures only 6% of roadside litter consists of bottles and cans. He asked the Selectmen to choose this alternative rather than the bottle bill now pending.

Only two more weeks left to enjoy Pre-School Story Hour! Three, four and five year olds are welcome to attend on Wednesday afternoons from 3-3:30 through March 28th.

If Spring makes you think of gardening or fixing up the house, we have acquired subscriptions to several magazines that will interest you. Old-House Journal is dedicated to the restoration and maintenance of old homes. Colonial Homes contains such varied information as house plans and interior decoration based on antique homes and to pictorial essays on historic homes and districts. Horticulture is put out by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society and has beautiful pictures as well as gardening articles by such authorities as James Underwood Crockett. Blair and Ketchum's Country Journal is a magazine for and about New England and New Englanders.

Magazines (excluding the current issue) can be taken out for two weeks. And, of course, all magazines and newspapers are here for you to browse through during library hours.

Children's Museum

SATURDAY PROGRAM

The program this Saturday, March 24th, at the Children's Museum in Russells Mills will be a very basic and informative talk for children on recycling material waste. Every community throughout the nation will, in the near future, need to become aware of saving our reusable waste. Everyone, especially the next generation, will find recycling a part of their daily lives. To introduce the basic facts at this early age will be advantageous to their futures and the future of our country. It is common knowledge that our country's natural resources will not last forever and that the areas used for sanitary landfills are quickly becoming filled up.

A NOSTALGIC NIGHT

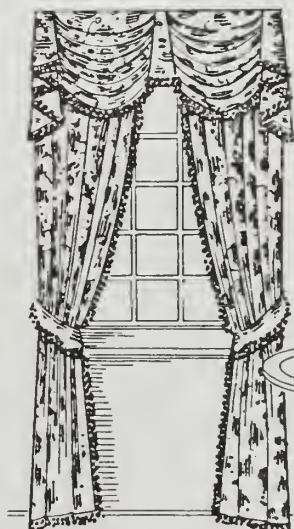

You'll need rabbit, cheshire cat and dormouse for starters. No, it's not a recipe for a new gourmet dish, but it is a part of what will delight your sensory appetite on Friday, March 30th, at Old Hammondtown School. At 8 P.M. that evening the students of the school will transform the stage in the cafetorium into a wonderland of fun and adventure. As the stage lights grow dim - hearts lighten, spirits glow and all viewers are once again five years old (at least for a little while!). The Town of Mattapoisett will never be the same once Alice and her Wonderland adventures are shared with its people.

To participate in this entertaining experience, adults will have to spend a small sum. Those under 18 years of age can indulge themselves at no cost.

History's Champion Spender

Editorial - D.C.J.

President Jimmy Carter, small town Georgia boy, has no competition in world's champion dollar spending. His five billion dollar sweetening of the pot of Israeli/Egypt peace negotiation is simply the latest in a spending spree that staggers the imagination. The cost reportedly of $90. per man, woman and child in the United States will be added to a national debt whose principle and interest will be passed along to Amy's great grandchildren. Who would be willing to bet $90. out of their pocket that peace in the Middle East will last 5 years? Any takers for 5 months?

The seemingly unlimited power of an American president to commit public funds to any foreign use should be a source of terrible concern to our Congress. True, Congress must consent to this giveaway but is this enough? President Carter has committed the money backed by the prestige of the office that he occupies. Should Congress not approve after the fact great damage is done to the integrity of the United States. It would be far more preferable to require the President to ask the consent of the Congress before allowing any commitment to any foreign power. In that way we could return a measure of power to the legislative branch of the government rather than allowing the President the power of a dictator over the treasury.

This is not the only case in recent months when President Carter has acted along to commit the United States to a deal with a foreign power that will cost tremendous sums over all the years in the future. After President Carter signed away the Panama Canal, Panama "interpreted" the treaty in their own way. They now demand: 1) The right of Panama to tax American businesses in the canal zone back to 1903; 2) All moveable American property must be given to Panama; 3) Panama demands the United States restore the Coco Solo naval base unused for 20 years. It is estimated that these demands will add a minimum of 4.1 billion dollars to the value of the lost canal so the actual cost to the American taxpayer may run as high as 20 billion dollars.

If Congress agrees to the enabling legislation to provide the money for these demands to sweeten the giveaway of the canal then Panama will reportedly increase canal tolls by 25% so that the American taxpayer on the east coast will pay a bonus every time a shipment is sent from the west coast.

Jimmy Carter is on record as saying that the Panama Canal giveaway would not cost the American public "a single dollar".

With this record in mind, might it be a good idea to require that the President of the United States sign no agreement with any foreign power which concerns any money or property without seeking and obtaining the consent of Congress before the act.

Incidentally, Congress is now hearing HB1716, President Carter's enabling legislation to give the Panamanians all they want. Another bill, H.R.1958, is also being considered which would require that the entire United States Congress vote on every transfer of property and on each appropriation of money to Panama.

Carroll Hubbard, Subcommittee on the Panama Canal, 3576 House Annex #2, Washington, D.C. 20515.

It is now too late to stop the giveaway of the canal but Congress might save 150 million dollars worth of property belonging to the United States, prevent the hundreds of millions it will cost to restore Coco Solo and prevent the nationalization of United States business in the canal zone which would be the result of retroactive tax to 1903. House Bill 1958 would require the express consent of Congress on all funds used to implement the treaty and "no territory or other property of the United States in the Panama Canal Zone be transferred to the Republic of Panama unless Congress hereafter enacts legislation which expressly authorized such transfer" (H.B. 1958).

Your Congressman and Senators should also have your opinion.

Leave those wee, little fellows behind and stroll down Fifth Avenue a short way until you reach the Gaslight Dixieland/Jazz Room. Straw hats, arm garters, and hearty sandwiches bring you into the center of New Orleans. Throw those peanut shells on the floor, get your hands clapping and feet stomping to Lou Colombo's renowned 5 piece Dixie and Jazz Band as they attempt to blow the roof off the Big Apple with rousing Creole tunes.

Loft School

OPEN HOUSE

All children who will be three or four years old next September are invited to bring their mothers and fathers to an Open House at the Loft School. Come visit our classrooms, meet our teachers, and join the children in some of their activities.

Open House will be held on Wednesday, March 28th, from 1-2 P.M. at the Loft School, 124 Front Street, Marion (behind St. Gabriel's Church).

This will be a good chance for both parents and children to see the school, talk with the staff and members of the Board of Directors and have any questions answered that they may have about the Loft School. Registration forms will be available at this time.

There are openings for both three and four year olds. For information and registration forms, please contact Mrs. Kathy Wood, 758-9035. Applications will be accepted after April 1, 1979.

AFS LAUNCHES FAMILY SEARCH

A ten-month "experience" in international relations without leaving town - that's what AFS International/Intercultural Programs is offering Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester families.

The AFS Chapter at Old Rochester Regional is searching for a family that will host an overseas student for the coming school year. The youngster will live with the family and attend classes at Old Rochester Regional High School.

The main requirement for an AFS host family is the parents' concern for and interest in young people.

York City carefully screens candidates who apply for a year-long stay in the United States. Students come here from more than 60 countries. There are over 3,400 students from abroad currently living and studying in America this year.

Aside from food costs and possibly some small incidental expenses, the host family incurs no debt in hosting a student. The local Chapter raises an annual fee which, when supplemented by whatever contributions the student can afford, covers AFS program expenses.

AFS also extends a monthly allowance directly to the student to cover incidental personal expenses. The organization makes sure host families will not have to pay medical bills for students. As a matter of policy, AFS extends medical coverage to its students.

Host families may take a monthly tax deduction in accordance with provisions made by the United States Internal Revenue Service.

While many families participating in the AFS program include children who are high school students, any family is eligible to serve as a host. Young families can have tremendous success when they volunteer as hosts. It becomes a learning experience for young children and for parents
